

For You

There's a grief that roars in silence
This searing loss defies lament
There is a severing unfolding now
Sharp tears beyond mere sentiment

I've wept the person I'm becoming You've traced my chaos-trodden trail
You've been the eye within my frenzied storms
Until I've seen my strength prevail

*When I thank God
I thank God for you
When I thank God
I thank God for you*
