

I Remember

*I remember
I remember...*

The presence of this pain
Claims the memory of my shame
I can feel its waters rising
To carry me ashore

The wisdom of your years
Hears the wisdom of my tears
And together they bear witness
To the terror choked before

*And I remember
Remember...*

The fragments in my head
Clutched convictions I'd be dead
If I ever knew for certain
But now I rest assure

*For I remember
That I remember
Now I remember...*
