

If The Truth Hurts

You spit your venom
In my eye
I look at you
With frustrated compassion
Your reflexive defenses
Just can't understand
How my love
Could lead me to this place

*If the truth hurts
If the truth hurts
Just think what a lie can do*

Forked accusations
Which way shall I go?
You glare at me
Pierce my soul
Reflecting defenses
Do we dare understand
How our lies
Could lead us to this place?

*If the truth hurts
If the truth hurts
Just think what a lie can do*

*If the truth hurts
If a lie hurts
Just think what the truth...*
