

The Letter

I sent a letter today
I sent a letter to say
Why? Oh why? Oh why?

I sent a letter today
What words could I choose to say
You lied, you lied, you lied

*So now I've told you who I am
So now, my heart is bare before you
You were the one who gave me life
How could you take my life away?*

I took my life back today
I had the courage to say
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
