

What I Would Give

What I would give
To take away your sorrow
What I would give
To see you shine!
For I would give the world to tell you
To tell you
You are loved

What you give me
Are tastes of hope in sorrow
What you give me
Is quiet strength
For you give me your gift of risking
And trusting
You are loved

*Your wounded courage
Shines like silver in the darkness
Your wounded courage
Shines like silver...*

What I would give...

For I would give my world to tell you
To tell you
You are loved
