

Loving Lord

Will you be there, loving Lord
When the silence crashes in
With its empty pain, alone again?
Loving Lord, loving Lord, are you there?

Will you hold me, loving Lord
When the arms within my heart
Ache without the care of gentle touch?
Loving Lord, loving Lord, are you there?

Will you lead me, loving Lord
When the way to walk is steep
And my footsteps fail without my guide?
Loving Lord, loving Lord, are you there?

Will you heal me, loving Lord
When my soul is dead with grief
And my life is shattered by the pain?
Loving Lord, loving Lord, are you there?

*You speak a word, and the void is gone
You mould a world in human form
You step inside the world's despair
And in the dark chaos of life
You are there*

You are with me, loving Lord
You reach out and lead me on
And your gentle healing is my guide
You are there, in my pain, loving Lord

Words and Music by Monique Lisbon
© MonoMusic 1998

This song comes from the CD and songbook
Refuge
(© MonoMusic 1999)

To order this product,
click here