

Psalm 42

My soul is like a deer
Thirsting for the water
The living water
Needing and craving my God

For my empty heart and mind
Have been taunted by tears
Where are you my God?
Where are you my God?
Where are you my God?

And I remember the days
When I knew you in joy and praise!
And I ask my thirsting soul
Why it feels the pain

Yet I will choose to trust you Lord
I will quench my thirst in you
Your love, my constant light
Your praise, my song by night
My life, a prayer of joy to you

My soul is like a deer
Thirsting for the water
The living water
Needing and craving my God

Words and Music by Monique Lisbon
© MonoMusic 1998

This song comes from the CD and songbook
Refuge
(© MonoMusic 1999)

To order this product,
click here