

We Go to God

We go to God when we're in need
For help and joy and food we plead
Our prayers for rescue show our greed
We're quick to call upon his name

God stands abused, his life in need
We stand with him and watch him bleed
Without a home nor breath to plead
He dies our death of guilt and shame

God comes to us when we're in need
His broken body, all to feed
Killed for one and all indeed
Releasing us from all our blame

Words adapted from Dietrich Bonhoeffer
Translated by Monique Lisbon
Music by Monique Lisbon
© MonoMusic 1998

This song comes from the CD and songbook
Refuge
(© MonoMusic 1999)

To order this product,
click here