

GOATS AND EGGS

spent a fruitless month or two tryin' to make sense of social security law now i'm no lawyer but no fool i cannot see why if you're poor and give to someone else who's poor you're both ripped off for more!

spent an empty week or two
tryin' to make sense
of corporate sponsorship thought i had it all worked out word your proposal well give a choice of silver, gold or platinum to give a business a soul!

*wouldn't it be nice if we could
wouldn't it be nice to just go back to swappin' goats and eggs?*

spent one crazy afternoon tryin' to write a book capturing every word just so and so i made some calls to try to find a company as mad as me to print it now, from go to whoa – and then, they offered it free!

back to swappin' goats and eggs?*

i don't think that goats come in platinum
but ya sure got a heart of gold!
