

Monique Lisbon: What Others Say

"Monique is a talented songwriter, deep thinker and honest communicator. The story of her journey as a survivor of child abuse is powerful, not the least for the way in which she's faced it all, steadfastly refusing to just walk away from God or friends when it's been toughest. Her music has been both gift and a battle for truth amidst grief, lies and despair. We need Monique's perspective and are grateful to her for it."

(Naomi Swindon, Missions Co-ordinator, Scripture Union, VIC)

truth

grace

"Monique's ministry holds together honesty about suffering and commitment to the Scriptures which many have benefited from. Perseverance and integrity are two words which mark her life. God's grace has been sufficient to meet her in time of need. We listen to her story with profit."

(Rhys Bezzant, Lecturer, Ridley Theological College, VIC)

"Monique offers others the hope she has found from God in the midst of her own struggles. She teaches, she inspires and she moves people with her words and music."

(Olivia Maclean, Senior Minister, 'Solace' Church Community, VIC)

inspires

"Monique's music comes from the heart, often from bitter personal experience. 'Tough' themes such as sexual abuse are transformed in her work into a message of hope, reconciliation, recovery and redemption.

recovery

"Her Christian commitment is very deep and her work is without question a form of ministry."

(Harris Smart, Previous Director, Centre for Creative Ministries, VIC)

"Monique is a highly intelligent person who is able to engage with complex issues thoughtfully and productively. In spite of her personal pain, she interacts with others compassionately and in an informed way... so that wider understandings can emerge..."

informed

"She has an engaging personality that readily attracts others to interact with her. Combined with an extraordinary capacity to connect everyday issues with her musical talents, she has contributed to worship moments with sensitivity and extraordinary skill..."

sensitivity

"Monique has an enormous capacity to contribute to the spiritual dimensions of human society."

(Merrill Kitchen, Principal, Churches of Christ Theological College, VIC)
